Totalitarianism and WWII
I. Authoritarian States

A. Conservative Authoritarianism and Radical Totalitarian Dictatorships
   1. Conservative Authoritarianism
   2. Totalitarianism
   3. Characteristics of Communist and Fascist Dictatorships

B. Communism and Fascism
   1. Societal Visions
   2. Race and Eugenics
   3. Mutual Enmity
II. Stalin's Soviet Union

A. From Lenin to Stalin (1879–1953)
   1. The New Economy Policy (NEP)
   2. Lenin’s Succession
   3. Stalin’s Triumph

B. The Five-Year Plans
   1. The First Five-Year Plan
   2. Collectivization and the Kulaks
   3. The Cost of Collectivization
   4. Industrialization
II. Stalin's Soviet Union

C. Life and Culture in Soviet Society
   1. Daily Life
   2. Personal Advancement
   3. Women’s Roles
   4. Politicized Culture

D. Stalinist Terror and the Great Purges
   1. The Kirov Murder
   2. The Great Purges
   3. The Purges’ Mysterious Origins
The Great Purge

Before Purge

After Purge
III. Mussolini and Fascism in Italy

A. The Seizure of Power
   1. The Weaknesses of Liberal Italy
   2. The Postwar Crisis
   3. Benito Mussolini (1883–1945)
   4. The Seizure of Power
III. Mussolini and Fascism in Italy

B. The Regime in Action

1. Seeming Moderation
2. The Matteotti Murder and its Aftermath
3. Popular Support
4. The Lateran Agreement (1929)
5. Characteristics of Fascist Italy
IV. Hitler and Nazism in Germany

A. The Roots of National Socialism
   1. The Origins of Hitler’s Worldview (1889–1945)
   2. The Impact of WWI
   3. The Nazi Party
   4. The Beer Hall Putsch

B. Hitler's Road to Power
   1. Mein Kampf (My Struggle)
   2. The Rise of National Socialism
   3. The Nazi Seizure of Power
IV. Hitler and Nazism in Germany

C. State and Society in Nazi Germany

1. Consolidating Power
2. “Coordination”
3. The SA Purge
4. The Racial State
5. The Nuremberg Laws (1935)
6. Kristallnacht (November 9, 1938)
IV. Hitler and Nazism in Germany

D. Popular Support for National Socialism

1. Economic Recovery
2. The Volksgemeinschaft (People’s Community)
3. Gender
4. Opponents
IV. Hitler and Nazism in Germany

E. Aggression and Appeasement

1. Aggressive Actions
2. Appeasement
3. The Munich Conference
4. The Hitler-Stalin Pact
IV. Hitler and Nazism in Germany

F. Spanish Civil War

1. General Franco
2. Tune-up for WWII
3. Horror of War
Picasso

La Guernica